A FAVORITE REMEDY.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or as promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popularity. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

DIAMOND Head, 3 o'clock-Weather cloudy, wind northeast.

THE band will give its regular afternoon concert at Emma square.

ONLY six cases of holiday drunkenness appeared on the Police Court calendar to-day.

THE National Reform party will hold a mass meeting at the Beretania street Armory this evening. THE Chinese celebrated their New Year right good heartedly, notwithstanding the mandamus decision. A CHINAMAN was arrested yesterday for a disorderly person and lodged in the Police Station, where he is now spending his New Year's. It is reported from Kukaiau, Hawaii, that a Japanese woman died at that place last week of consumption, and was cremated by her countrymen.

THE Board of Health lately received an offer from two M. D.s of San Francisco, of a certain herb medicine which they claimed would cure leprosy.

It is reported that Chun Hook, the famous Honolulu crook, was given a conditional pardon yesterday, and will return to China at the earliest opportunity.

A LETTER from Kau, Hawaii, reports that a combined thunder and hail storm visited that district. This is said to be an unprecedented phenomenon there.

Mr. Allen Hutchinson, sculptor, has issued invitations for an exhibition of various works at his studio, next to Japanese Legation, Nuuanu avenue, this afternoon.

MRS. Florence Williams' first biographical lecture on "Patriots, Heroes, Saints," will be given at the Honolulu Library at 7:30 this evening. It will be a rare literary treat.

MR. J. M. Vivas has brought an action against Mr. E. B. Thomas, to recover $10 for turning one of his stump speeches into Portuguese. Defendant says it was less than a five-HANDBILLS calling a meeting at Brito's hall this evening purport to be issued by the presidents of two Portuguese benevolent societies. The societies or their officers have nothing to do with the meeting. It is called by the Liberal party, who have hired the hall. The thing is a little trick to draw the Portuguese.

THE Y. M. C. A. will hold evangelistic services to-night in Bethel Hall. Bethel street, manka of Castle & Cooke's store. Everybody will receive a hearty welcome. Seats free. No collection. Members of the Kamehameha Glee Club lead the song service, which begins at 7:15 p. m, sharp. Come and bring a friend.

The number of voters registered this year for Nobles in Honolulu is 1592. Last election the number was 1746. As will be seen there is a difference of 154, but it must be rememberec that some registered two years ago, who did not require to come forward again except for recovering their votes for Representatives, which were lost by a mistake in making up the

A DELICHTFUL CONCERT. The organ recital at Kaumakapili

Church drew out a large number of people notwithstanding the boister-ous weather. Seated in the righthand pew were: Her Majesty the Queen, Governor Cleghorn, Major J. W. Robertson, Chamberlain, Prince David Kawananakoa and Mrs. Chas. B. Wilson. Mr. Wray Taylor opened the concert with two organ solos which were rendered in his usual sterly style. Mr. Taylor also dered "Aloha Oe," composed by Majesty, in the course of the ning. The Kawaiahao Seminary rus composed of about thirtyr girls then sang two trios nicely, ning applause. They were acpanied on the piano by Miss sanne Patch, instructor of singing he Seminary. Selections on the ndbells, by pupils of Mr. C. H. nite, were a novelty which was y appreciated by the audience. was an entertaining innovation. s Kulamanu Ward, in the song "Goodnight," by Abt, won enthusiastic plaudits by what was a magnificent effort. This young lady has a bright, clear soprano, and is fully capable of controlling it. She had to respond to an encore. Miss Ward was accompanied by Miss Marie von Holt. Hon. C. P. Iaukea sang in a fine musical tenor Sullivan's "Once Again," with Mrs. Malcolm Brown as accompanist. He was recalled.

THOSE OPIUM PILLS.

Police Justice Wm. Foster has given a decision in the case of the Collector of Customs vs. Opium Pills, a suit which has been pending in the Police Court some time. The Court finds that "the pills in suit are a preparation of opium, the importation of which is forbidden by law, and gives judgment in favor of plaintiff, and the forfeiture of said pills." These pills have been imported time and again, by Chinese merchants, for some years past.

RECEPTION TO THE PUBLIC.

The crush at the afternoon reception, given by Her Majesty to the general public who had been previously presented and to visiting strangers who could obtain necessary introduction, was very great. The spacious waiting hall of the Palace was crowded with the representatives of the wit, beauty and fashion of Honolulu, and also many notable visitors to the Paradise of the Pacific. On Major J. W. Robertson, Her Majesty's Chamberlain, and his aide, Col. Names H. Boyd, devolved the duty of regulating the presentation, and none of those who desired the honor were neglected. As at the morning receptions Her Majesty received in the Throne room; Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, the Princes Kawananakoa and Kalanianaole, members of Her Majesty's Cabinet, the Supreme Bench, besides the ladies-in-waiting, being present. After being presented callers were directed to the register and from that volume the following list is taken, viz. :

Mr and Mrs Alex Young, Miss Young, Miss Nellie Young, THE LUAU.

The luau given in the Palace yard was the largest native feast ever given here, modernly, unless the Kalakana coronation luan be excepted-a question that present deponent is not in a position to decide. There were seats in the lanai for about 500 persons, and the feast lasted from 3:30 to 5:30. Then there was a smaller lanai, holding from 100 to 200, devoted to aged people and children. Allowing half an hour for relays on the average, there must have been from 3000 to 4000 people, who brought keen appetites to bear on the inexhaustible supplies. Col. John Richardson of H. M.'s staff and Hou. W. H. Rice of Kauai had general supervision of the luau. Their great experience in such things was not discredited by the result. It was suprising to find, even at the fag end of the feast, that fresh arrivals of eaters could be waited on with fair promptness. There was a transportation corps hard at work all the time between the service shed and the lanai, carrying in fresh piles of dishes cooked in the native style and carrying out the remains of finished repasts. As to the feast itself, it is enough to say it was a luau of the best. Residents and visitors will understand this; others will have to learn it otherwise than from printed descriptions. There were five bullocks, fifteen hogs and twenty-two pigs slaughtered for the feast. What the quantity and the variety of food drawn from the ocean and from the soil, or the size of ship the ginger ale and soda water would float, could not be ascertained. The supplies came from all the islands of the group, some of them as gifts to the Queen. Her Majesty and suite initiated the feasting, seated at a crescent-shaped range of tables at the head of the lanai. Bishop Willis offered prayer before the eating. The lawn was dotted with marquees for post-pran-dial rest and refreshment. There was an animated scene on the grounds with the hundreds of grouped and straggling people.

The Royal Band, conducted by Prof. Berger, played, with very short intervals, from 6 in the morning till 6 in the evening. What is anything without the band? Everybody was happily disappointed that the threatening weather of the morning did not materialize, but kept aloof from interference with any of the events laid down for the day's celebration.
God Save the Queen.

"MIZPAH"

Has become a word dear to the hearts of mothers. The "Mizpah" Valve Nipple is made of pure gum, will not collapse and prevents much colic because they admit air into the bottle as the milk is drawn out, thus preventing a vacuum being formed. Give the baby a chance to express his opinion, You'll very soon find out whether the "Mizpah" is a success or not.

We have an assortment of Davidson and Goodyear Nipples, also Rubber Rattles and Teething Rings, and Nursery requisites in general.

Every household should have a Hot Water Bag. We have some new ones and if used with ordinary care will last for years. Invalid Cushions can be used as "life preservers" on land as well as sea. Ours are for home service, and are the best in every way. Rubber tubing from the diameter of Linch to the size of garden hose, which we sell by the foot or yard. We've lots of other rubber goods, and our Drug Store, you know, is the best place to buy them.
